TEXAS INCOME PROTECTION PLAN

BENEFIT BASICS

TIPP offers short-term and long-term disability coverage that protects your income by paying a percentage of your paycheck if you become disabled and can't work, for reasons such as illness, injury or pregnancy.

Here's a brief comparison of the TIPP options:

	Short-term Disability Benefits	Long-term Disability Benefits
Monthly payments	66% of your monthly salary, up to $10,000 of salary*	60% of your monthly salary, up to $10,000 of salary*
Maximum benefit	$6,600 per month (66% of up to $10,000 of salary to a maximum benefit of $6,600). Example: If your insured monthly salary is $3,200, your monthly short-term disability payment would be $2,112 ($3,200 x 66% = $2,112)	$6,000 per month (60% of up to $10,000 of salary to a maximum benefit of $6,000). Example: If your insured monthly salary is $3,200, your monthly long-term disability payment would be $1,920 ($3,200 x 60% = $1,920)
Benefits start after (whichever is longer)	You complete a waiting period of 30 consecutive days and at the same time use all your sick leave. This means that you must use all your sick leave (including extended sick leave, donated sick leave and sick leave pool) at the same time you are completing the waiting period (30 days or 180 days). If you have more than the specified number of sick leave days, benefits are not payable until all of your sick leave is used. You are not required to use your vacation or other annual leave.	You complete a waiting period of 180 consecutive days and at the same time use all your sick leave.
How long	Up to 5 months (a maximum of 150 days) after you complete the waiting period	Until you are able to return to work or until you reach your Maximum Benefit Period (based on the age you become disabled) or based on the condition causing your disability

*The maximum monthly salary covered is $10,000.
The amount is less if you receive payments from other sources. See the User's Guide at www.texasincomeprotectionplan.com to learn more.
